Section 8. Procedures for Fulfilment of Restrictions on Combining the Offices of Public Officials if Combination of Offices is Prohibited

(1) A person who, after assuming office as a public official, concurrently holds an office the combining of which with the office of public official is not permitted, has a duty within seven days in writing:

1) to notify a higher public official or collegial authority of the fact that he or she holds one or more offices (performs a work-performance contract or authorisation) the combining of which with the office of public official is prohibited;

2) to submit to the authority in which the person holds an office the combining of which with the office of public official is prohibited a submission requesting the release of him or her from the relevant office.

(2) If the person who after assuming office as a public official at the same time performs economic activity, fulfils work-performance contract or authorisation, the combining of which with the office of public official is prohibited, he or she shall, within three months from the day of assuming the office, terminate the economic activity, work-performance contract or cease the authorisation.

(3) The authority (person), which has received the submission of a public official referred to in Paragraph one, Clause 2 of this Section, has a duty, within one month, to take a decision to release the person from the office. The decision shall be sent to the relevant public official.

(4) If a public official has not received the decision referred to in Paragraph three of this Section due to circumstances beyond his or her control, he or she has a duty after the expiry of the time period referred to in Paragraph three of this Section:

1) to notify in writing a higher public official or collegial authority, as well as the Prevention and Combating of Corruption Bureau thereof;
2) to suspend the performance of the duties of the relevant office;
3) to notify the authority (person) referred to in Paragraph one, Clause 2 of this Section regarding the suspension of receipt of remuneration and to not utilise further payments of remuneration.

(5) If the authority referred to in Paragraph one, Clause 2 of this Section has not fulfilled the provisions of Paragraph three of this Section, the public official shall be considered as having observed the requirements of this Law.

[7 June 2007; 28 April 2011]

Section 8. Procedures for Fulfilment of Restrictions on Combining the Offices of Public Officials, if for the Performance of the Combination of Offices Permission is Necessary

(1) A person who upon assuming an office of a public official at the same time holds another office and such combining of offices is permitted upon receipt of a written permission from the officials (authorities) has a duty prior to appointment, election or approval to office, to submit in writing to such official (authority) a request to permit the combination of the public official office with another office. Also performance of economic activity, work-performance contract or authorisation shall be considered as office in this Section.

(2) If a person whose public official status is determined after a decision on his or her appointment, election or approval to office has been taken, at the same time holds another office and such combining of offices is permitted upon receipt of written permission from officials (authorities), the relevant person has a duty within seven days from the day of specification of public official status to submit in writing a request to permit the combination of the public official office with another office.

(3) A public official who wishes to combine a public official office with another office, and such combining of offices is permitted upon receipt of a written permission from officials (authorities) prior to the commencement of the combination of offices to submit in writing to the abovementioned official (authority) a request to permit the combination of the public official office with another office.

(4) If a public official holds several public official offices, written permission shall be received for each office the combining of which with another office in accordance with this Law permission is necessary.

(41) If a public official (authority) that appoints, elects or approves a person to the office of a public official is the same as the one which according to the conditions of the relevant Paragraph of Section 7 of this Law takes a decision to permit combining the office of a public official with other offices, on the basis of information provided by the person, shall take a decision to permit combining the offices, also when appointing, electing or approving a person to the relevant office. In this case, no other permission is necessary for the mutual combining of the relevant offices. The issues referred to in Paragraph five of this Section shall be evaluated and reflected in the decision to appoint, elect or approve to the office. A permission for combination of offices may be revoked according to Paragraph six of this Section.

(5) In the cases determined in this Law, a public official (authority) upon receipt of the request referred to in Paragraph one, two or three of this Section to permit a public official to combine a public official office with another office has a duty to:

1) evaluate whether the combination of the office will not entail a conflict of interest, will not be in contradiction with ethical norms binding upon the public official and will not harm the performance of the direct duties of the public official;

1') evaluate whether the combination of the office will not harm the interests of the State of Latvia, if the performance of the work is intended in a foreign state, international organisation, the representation (mission) thereof or on their behalf;

2) within one month, take a decision on issuing of permission or a refusal to issue permission for the combination of offices.

(6) If after coming into effect of the decision to issue permission for the combination of offices, the legal or factual circumstances, which are referred to in Paragraph five, Clause 1 of this Section and which were the basis for the taking of the relevant decision, have changed, and the change of such circumstances does not permit the continued combination of offices, the relevant public official (authority) shall revoke the decision to issue permission for the combination of offices.

(7) The decisions referred to in Paragraph five, Clause 2 and Paragraph six of this Section shall be taken and drawn up in accordance with the procedures laid down in the Administrative Procedure Law, indicating the justification for the decision in accordance with the requirements of Paragraph five, Clause 1 of this Section and other laws and regulations.

(8) If with a decision the issuing of permission to combine offices is refused or a decision is taken, which revokes a decision on issuing of permission for the combination of offices, the relevant official may dispute and appeal such decisions in accordance with the procedures laid down in the Administrative Procedure Law. The dispute or appeal of a decision shall not suspend the operation thereof.

(9) If a public official has been refused the issuing of permission to combine offices and such official already holds the office to be combined, as well as in the case if the decision on issuing of permission for the combination of offices has been revoked in accordance with Paragraph six of this Section, the public official shall, within one month, submit a request to release him or her from one or several offices in order to observe the restriction regarding the combination of offices laid down in this Law. To the further actions of authorities (persons) and the public official, Section 8, Paragraphs three, four and five of this Law shall be applicable.

(4) The declarations of public officials referred to in Section 23, Paragraph one, Clauses 1 and 3 of this Law shall not be submitted if the public official continues to hold another office of public official or assumes a new office of public official.

(5) The President, members of the Saeima, Prime Minister, Deputy Prime Ministers, Ministers, Ministers for Special Assignments, and Parliamentary Secretaries, chairpersons of the local government councils and executive directors of local governments shall submit the declaration referred to in Section 23, Paragraph one, Clause 4 of this Law if they have performed the duties of the relevant office longer than three months. Such declaration shall be submitted for the 24 months following the termination of performance of the duties of office of public official. The declaration for the first 12 months shall be submitted not later than in the 15th month, for the next 12 months – not later than in the 27th month after termination of performance of the duties of office of public official.

(6) The declarations referred to in Section 23, Paragraph one of this Law may be updated by applying in writing to the institution where the declaration was submitted and by justifying
Section 26. Public Access to Declarations

(1) In order to ensure the protection of personal data, the declarations shall contain a part that is publicly accessible and a part that is not publicly accessible. The public official or the head of the authority which verifies declarations in accordance with this Law, as well as the head of the institution of a public person who has received a copy of the relevant declaration shall be responsible for ensuring public access.

(2) The part of declaration that is publicly accessible is all the information included in the declaration, except the information that is determined in Paragraph four of this Section.

(3) Within the meaning of this Law, public access is the right of employees of the mass media and other persons to become acquainted with the declarations of any public official, as well as to publish the information included therein.

(4) The part of a declaration that is not publicly accessible is the personal identity number and place of residence of the public official indicated in the declaration, information on the minor relatives (also adoptees) of the official, information on the liability and transaction partners indicated in the declaration, as well as the information indicated in Section 24, Paragraph one, Clause 13, Sub-clause “a” of this Law.

(5) Only such public officials and authorities which examine the declarations in accordance with this Law, as well as in cases determined in the Law – prosecutors and investigative institutions or State security authorities may become acquainted with the information in the part of the declaration that is not publicly accessible.

(51) The head of an institution of a public person has the right to request from a public official information, which is to be indicated in the part of a declaration that is not publicly accessible, if in particular case it is necessary in order to avoid the relevant public official from being in a situation of a conflict of interest.

(6) The data to be published indicated in the declarations of the President, members of the Saeima, Prime Minister, Deputy Prime Ministers, Ministers, Ministers for Special Assignments, Parliamentary Secretaries and councillors of city councils shall be published electronically not later than within one month, but the data to be published indicated in the declarations of other public officials not later than within three months after submission thereof to the State Revenue Service.

Chapter V Examination of Violations and Verification of Facts

Section 27. Verification Procedures

(1) Violations of this Law committed by public officials, as well as the facts that it is mandatory to be verified shall be examined and verified in accordance with the procedures laid down in this Law and other laws and regulations.

(2) This Law and other laws and regulations shall determine the rights and duties of public officials and authorities regarding the fulfilment and control of the requirements of this Law.

(3) The State Revenue Service, Constitution Protection Bureau, the Prime Minister or his or her authorised person in conformity with the procedures for the submission of declarations provided for in Section 23, Paragraphs two, three and four of this Law shall verify the declarations of public officials taking into account the competence provided for in Section 28 of this Law. The Prevention and Combating of Corruption Bureau shall verify all of the public official declarations referred to in Section 4, Paragraph one of this Law in conformity with the competence provided for in Section 28 of this Law. If necessary the Prevention and Combating of Corruption Bureau shall verify the declarations of the public officials referred to in Section 4, Paragraphs two, 2.2, 2.3 and three of this Law.

[8 May 2003; 12 November 2009]

Section 28. Verification of Declarations and Facts

(1) The State Revenue Service, Constitution Protection Bureau, the Prime Minister or his or her authorised person in conformity with the jurisdiction of the submission of declarations provided for in Section 23, Paragraphs two, three and four of this Law have a duty in cases provided for in this Law to verify whether the declaration:
1) has been submitted and completed in accordance with the determined procedures;
2) has been submitted within the specified time period.
(1 1) [8 May 2003]

(2) The Constitution Protection Bureau, the Prime Minister or his or her authorised person in conformity with the jurisdiction of the submission of declarations provided for in Section 23, Paragraphs two, three and four of this Law, as well as the Prevention and Combating of Corruption Bureau in the cases provided for Section 23, Paragraph two of this Law have a duty to verify whether the declarations contain information that is indicative of violation of the restrictions laid down in this Law.

(3) The State Revenue Service and the Constitution Protection Bureau have a duty to verify whether:
1) the head of an institution of a public person has submitted the lists of public officials within the specified time period and in accordance with the procedures stipulated by the Cabinet;
2) the lists of public officials submitted by the head of an institution of a public person have been completed correctly and are complete.

(4) If necessary, in the course of the verification of a declaration the Prevention and Combating of Corruption Bureau, the Constitution Protection Bureau, State Revenue Service or the Prime Minister has the right to request and receive information and documents from the relevant public official, institutions of a public person, merchants, public or political organisations and associations thereof, religious organisations or other institutions, as well as from the persons that are indicated or in accordance with the provisions of this Law should have been indicated in the relevant declaration.

(5) If in the course of the verification of a declaration facts are discovered that indicate that the public official has utilised property, including financial resources, exceeding the sources of income determined in the declaration of such public official and permitted in accordance with this Law, as well as in cases where information has been received on the possibility of such facts, the Prevention and Combating of Corruption Bureau, the Constitution Protection Bureau or the Prime Minister has a duty to perform verification of the relevant facts or information. Within the limits of verification the Prevention and Combating of Corruption Bureau, the Constitution Protection Bureau or the Prime Minister has the right, if necessary, to request and receive explanations in writing and documents from any person, as well as to verify the legality of acquisition of the property of the official by involving the State Revenue Service.

(6) If in the course of the verification of a declaration violations are discovered, the examination of which is not in the competence of the authority or public officials performing the verification, or if facts are discovered the evaluation of which is not in the competence of the authority or public officials performing the verification, or if information is received on the existence of such facts, the relevant authority or public official shall inform, in accordance with the procedures laid down in this Law and other laws and regulations, the authority or public official whose competence includes further examination or verification of the facts.
[8 May 2003; 30 October 2014]

Section 29. Duties of Public Officials Regarding Verification of Declarations, Facts and Violations

(1) A public official has a duty to provide and justify the information requested by an authority or a public official authorised by law.

(2) A public official has a duty to justify the fact that his or her expenses have been covered and financial status has improved from legal sources of income to the authority or public official authorised by law.

(3) If a public official does not provide the information required by the authority or the public official authorised by law regarding the sources of acquisition of property, including financial resources, or cannot justify the acquisition of income or financial benefit from a legal source, it shall be presumed that the public official has acquired the property prohibited by this Law, including financial resources, and he or she is hiding this fact from the State.
[8 May 2003]

Section 30. Liability of Public Officials and Other Persons

(1) A person shall be held liable for violations of this Law as laid down in laws. A public official has a duty to compensate for the caused losses in accordance with the provisions of this Section.

(2) Income and financial benefits obtained by violating the restrictions laid down in this Law or a proportional augmentation thereof shall accrue to the State, by presuming that by violating the restrictions determined by the State and illegally obtaining income or financial benefits, the public official has caused such harm to the State administrative order as is to be evaluated in financial terms and is proportional to the value of augmentation of income, financial benefits and property that are obtained in a prohibited way.

(2-1) Paragraph two of this Law shall not be applied in cases if the combination of offices is permitted, upon receipt of written permission from the officials (authorities), but the permission has not been requested by the public official and such combination of offices has not created a conflict of interest. In other cases, the public official shall be fully or partially released from such repayment of income or financial benefits, which have been acquired by violation of the restriction laid down in this Law if the duty to repay income and financial benefits is not proportionate to the harm caused as a result of the administrative violation to the procedures of State administration.

(3) If a public official does not compensate voluntarily the losses caused to the State, the State authority or the public official authorised by law has a duty to perform the necessary actions in order to claim compensation for the losses caused in accordance with the procedures laid down in law.

(4) Compensation for losses shall be requested in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Law, by issuing an administrative act regarding the compensation for losses caused and by performing activities provided for in laws and regulations for execution of the administrative act. The execution shall be ensured through the bailiff.

(5) The recovery of losses from the public official shall take place regardless of whether the public official is subject to administrative or criminal liability for violating the provisions of this Law.
Section 31. Informing of the Society Regarding a Violation

(1) The Corruption Prevention and Combating Bureau and the State Revenue Service, in compliance with the competence laid down in this Law and other laws and regulations, has a duty to inform the society regarding violations of this Law detected in the activities of a public official, placing the information on the website of the relevant authority.

(2) The Constitutional Court shall inform the society regarding violations of this Law committed by the judges of the Constitutional Court, the Judicial Disciplinary Committee or the Disciplinary Court – regarding the violations committed by judges and the General Prosecutor’s Office – regarding the violations committed by public prosecutors.

(3) The Prime Minister shall inform the society regarding violations of this Law committed by the head of the Corruption Prevention and Combating Bureau.

(4) The authorities referred to in Paragraphs one, two and three of this Law shall insert the following information on the website thereof:

1) the given name, surname and position held by a public official;
2) the legal norm of this Law which has been violated;
3) the essence of the violation and time of commitment thereof;
4) the decision (adjudication) taken;
5) the date of entering into effect of a decision (adjudication) and of execution thereof.

(5) The authorities referred to in Paragraphs one, two and three of this Section shall insert the information on the website thereof after the decision of the relevant authority has entered into effect and has not been contested or appealed within the time period determined in the Law, or the relevant adjudication of a court has entered into effect. Such information shall be on the website of the relevant authority for not more than a year from the day when the relevant decision (adjudication) has been executed.

(6) The referred to in Paragraph one of this Section shall not apply to violations committed by officials of the State security institutions and other public officials to whom the restrictions of disclosure of information provided for in the Law On Official Secret apply.
